DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-12 and 27-38, drawn to an array substrate with color filters, classified in class 349, subclass 106.
- II. Claims 13-26 and 39-56, drawn to a method of forming an array substrate, classified in class 430, subclass 20.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In this case an array substrate with color filters (invention I) can be made by different process in which a black matrix can be formed directly on TFT and color filters formed directly on substrate.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Group I or II contains combination-subcombination directed to the following patentably distinct invention:

A: an array substrate with forming color filter disposed between the first and second gate/data pads.

B: an array substrate with no color filter disposed between the first and second gate/data pads.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Inventions A and B are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because color filter (subcombination) may not need to form at gate or data pads, which are outside the display areas. The subcombination has separate utility such as color peripherals in non-display area.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group A is not required for Group B, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the combination-subcombination (A or B) that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims and drawings readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Conclusion

Since an election to the restriction is required, a SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD for response to this action is set to expire ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS, whichever is longer, from the mailing date of this communication. Failure to respond within the period for response will cause the application to become abandoned. (35 U.S.C. §133). Extension of time may be obtained under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a).
